

OFFICIAL BIO

Before making Brooklyn, New York her heart and home, Baltimore native Gisele Jackson toured as a 'Raylette' with Ray Charles, shared many a stage with the incomparable Donna Summer and grooved with James Brown, the Godfather of Soul. She has performed in 30+ countries; covering 4 continents: Africa, Asia, Europe and North America. She has performed solo at leading jazz houses in the U.S. and been the opening act for Tito Puente, Bette Midler, The Commodores, the B-52's and a host of other music giants across a variety of genres. A most memorable performance was at Carnegie Hall the NY Pops; Marvin Hamlisch, Conductor. Ms Jackson's worldwide smash hit "Love Commandments" reached #3 on Billboard's Dance chart and today is a bonafide "Club Classic". Other performances include festivals, major openings, numerous celebrity weddings, corporate events for Fortune 500 companies, Hollywood premieres, and award ceremonies. She was requested to perform at the Inauguration of U.S. President William H. Clinton, and so she did!
